SAVY WRITER WITH AN EYE FOR TRUTH IN COMEDY

Jeanne Taylor is an award winning writer, actress and producer based in Los Angeles. Her full length play, The Estrogen Map, was performed at the IMPROV and Two Cent's Theatre (as the featured play in their womens playwright festival.) Jeanne was mentored by Kristen Hanggi to write The Estrogen Map and workshopped the play in Jeffrey Tambor's Master Class, Los Angeles, prior to its performance at the Hudson Theatre. Following, Jeanne wrote two short films The Co-Star and The Co-Star: Master Acting Class. Both scripts were developed through Naked Angels Los Angeles: Tuesdays at 9. Next, Jeanne wrote a screenplay called The Bottom of Fallow Lake and produced a sizzle reel for the film, featuring Academy Award Nominee and Emmy Winner, Thom Floutz's special makeup effects. You can view the sizzle at www.thebottomoffallowlake.com. Jeanne's next adventure was her one woman show, which enjoyed a sold out run at Upright Citizen's Brigade (UCB) Theatre in Hollywood, 2016. Craft Service Table: The Musical...A One Woman Show (but also with one guy), was cowritten and coproduced with Hal Rudnick. Jeanne was inspired to write a webseries, released October, 2016 on Youtube, entitled: Mrs. Carmody & Mrs. Jellineck: Heir Today, Gone Tomorrow. The second season is in post and will be released this summer. Jeanne's next endeavor is her pilot, Battle Ax, hot off the press and submitted here.
